

SUCCESS IN THE CITY?

Join us in September for welcome and networking events
in central London

Many wonder how being a Christian and working for a corporate company can be compatible, let alone grasp how Christians can flourish in the world of competition and ambition.

Whether you are new to London or have been working here for years, come and hear how you can be supported to serve Jesus and live according to God's plan.

Join us at one of our three upcoming events or find out more about lunchtime talks and events near you:
